Dear Phil:

Thank you for your kind invitation to attend the forthcoming Conference for Corporation Executive. The subject of the Conference - The Challenge of Soviet Bloc Economic Expansion - is a timely one. Unfortunately, previous commitments prevent me from attending.

I should, however, like to send one of my senior economists, Mr. [] to the Conference as my representative. Will you please let me know if this will be all right?

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Signed

Allen A. Dulles

Dear Phil:

Thank you for your kind invitation to join you in your upcoming Conference for Cooperation Executives. As you would imagine, the subject of the Challenge of Soviet Economic Expansion is one in which we have great interest and I am extremely sorry that I will not be able to be with you.

With your permission, however, I would like very much to send one of my junior economists, Mr. [redacted], to sit in on these meetings in my place. Will you please let me know if this will be all right?

In the meantime, I have passed the agenda on to Mr. [redacted] and asked him to hold 2 and 3 December free until we hear from you.

Sincerely yours,
